

NWFP PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Competitive Examination for Civil Judges-cum-Judicial Magistrates, 2009.

ISLAMIC JURISPRUDENCE

Time Allowed: 3 Hours.

Total Marks: 100

NOTE: Attempt any 'Five' questions in English or Urdu
All questions carry equal marks.

Q. No. 1 "Necessity renders prohibited things permissible".
Discuss this maxim in the light of
Islamic Jurisprudence."

Q. No. 2 Discuss Hadith as a source of Islamic law.

Q. No. 3 What are the salient features of Islamic law of Evidence? Discuss briefly.

Q. No. 4 What are the qualities of a Muftahid.

Q. No. 5 Write a detailed note on Islamic Law of Torts.

Q. No. 6 Can a woman be Qadi according to Islamic Jurisprudence. What are the views of various Imams.

Q. No. 7 What are the sources of revenue in an Islamic State.

Q. No. 8 Can a woman be head of an Islamic State. Discuss in the light of Quran and Sunnah. Give the views of various jurists, if any.

Q. No. 9 Write a detailed note on 'SIHAH-E-SITTAH'?

Q. No. 10 Write short notes on any Two of the following:

(i) QASAMA (قَسَامَة)

(ii) DAR-UL-HARB (دَارُ الْحَرْبِ)

(iii) AL-HEDAYAH (الْهُدَايَة)

(iv) CUSTOMS AS SOURCE OF LAW. (v) TAQLID (تَقْلِيد)